Box No. II	Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)
1. Claims
2. Claims	e they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:  Nos.:  e they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
3. Claims because	Nos.: e they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).
Box No. III	Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 3 of first sheet)
A methodomerise after an public, according A methodomerise after an public,	al Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:  In the containing an organic material which a carrying out a supercritical treatment or subcritical treatment auxiliary treatment and then a biological treatment is known to the and accordingly, there is no matter common to all the inventions g to claims 1 to 16.  In the containing an organic material which is carrying out a supercritical treatment or subcritical treatment auxiliary treatment and then a biological treatment is known to the and accordingly, there is no matter common to all the inventions g to claims 12 to 16.
1. X As all r claims.	equired additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable earchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of litional fee.
•	some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers ose claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
	uired additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is ed to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:
Remark on Pro	The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.  No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.
